Welcome to ELUNA 2013

We are delighted to host the 2013 ELUNA Conference here in Athens, Georgia, and we hope you will enjoy your stay in our bustling southern college town. If you have not been to the south before, you will notice that despite the sprawling metropolitan influence of Atlanta, old regional customs continue to permeate the landscape. Look for boiled peanuts and GRITS (Girls Raised in the South), listen for "y'alls" and "fixin'-to's," wait your turn at four-way stops, and be sure to call the women "ma'am." You can call men anything you want but don't call them late for dinner (which is lunch) or supper (which is dinner). And be sure to serve them fried green tomatoes, grits, streak-o-lean, collards, and cornbread or biscuits or both.

Wonderful food options aside, Athens is a special town where the people are friendly and there are many fun things to do. Explore the "on-your-own" suggestions on pages 32-33 of this program, especially the beautiful and historic north campus of the University of Georgia, home to multiple libraries and co-host of this year's event along with GALILEO, Georgia's Virtual Library initiative of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. We hope you will confirm for yourself the truth of these recent accolades:

- "7 Up and Coming Food Cities Around the U.S.," Zagat, March 6, 2013
- "25 Best Places to Retire 2013," Forbes, February 2013
- "Top 10 College Towns," Livability.com
- "The Next Big Scene" 10 Cities Where the Food's Hot and the Music Rocks, Gourmet, June 2012
- Ranked #8 of "Top 10 Affordable Vacations" Livability.com, April 2012
- Ranked #1 of "Top 10 Cities With the Best Music Scenes Outside of Nashville, NYC, and LA" Livability.com, March 2012

We have organized three social events for your relaxation and networking with colleagues. The first of these is the joint Tech Seminar closing / ELUNA opening reception, generously sponsored by Ex Libris at the UGA Special Collections Library on Tuesday, April 30; meet your colleagues on the lawn under the stars of the southern sky for a buffet and beverages, including special local brews by the Terrapin Beer Company, an ELUNA 2013 sponsor. Be sure to wander inside and explore the exhibits highlighting many unique and interesting aspects of Georgia's culture and history, including the Athens music scene, as well as the Peabody Collection of artifacts and materials related to the history of broadcasting on radio and television. On Wednesday night, a fun night of food, beverage, and music takes place at the Melting Point, featuring Abbey Road Live, a band of long-time Athens music scene veterans who channel the Beatles on special occasions. And last but not least, Thursday night will feature a pub-crawl of downtown Athens, from the divine to the ridiculous, Thomas to Pulaski, Hancock to Broad, and all points in between. Collect your participation prize at the business meeting on Friday!

The ELUNA Program Planning Committee and the Local Arrangements Committee, led by the University of Georgia and GALILEO, have worked hard to create a terrific conference, packed full of meaningful sessions that tell the stories of libraries and their experiences, as well as product updates and the future of the Ex Libris product line. There are over 150 sessions covering a variety of topics related to Ex Libris products, and we thank the many presenters who have stepped forward to offer insights and experiences. Conference participants will be arriving from all over the United States, as well as from international sites. As usual, Ex Libris leadership will be on hand to participate in the presentations and to engage in individual discussions. We welcome you and look forward to a productive and beneficial conference!

Many thanks to all of the sponsors of ELUNA 2013. Without their support, especially that of Ex Libris, this event would not be possible. We would also like to express appreciation to our local hosts, the University of Georgia Libraries and GALILEO, Georgia's Statewide Virtual Library. Athens is a welcoming town; we also appreciate the Classic Center, Convention and Visitor's Bureau, hotels, caterers, Groome Transportation, musicians, service people, bars, Terrapin Brewery, and everyone who has helped to make this event a success. Thank y'all so much!

Fun Things On Your Own

- Arrive early for the Twilight Criterium bike race on the weekend of April 26-27. This unique festival offers a day of related events as well as eight separate race classes and 150 cyclists competing in the main event, the men's criterium, an 80K race around downtown Athens. Free.
- Enjoy kayaking and canoeing on the Broad River
    - http://www.broadriveroutpost.com
    - http://www.thesandbarbroadriver.com
- Take a tour of UGA's Special Collections Library, Tuesdays @ 2:00
- Visit the Georgia Museum of Art or State Botanical Garden of Georgia
- Explore Georgia's Antebellum Trail and Madison, Georgia
- Stay after for the Human Rights Festival on the weekend of May 4-5, an annual two-day event that takes over the main intersection of downtown Athens with speakers, bands, exhibits, food, and more. Free.
- Add on a day or two in Atlanta and explore the many things the city has to offer

Did You Know...?

When UGA was incorporated by an act of the Georgia General Assembly on January 27, 1785, Georgia became the first state to charter a state-supported university. At that time, nearby Watkinsville, as the then-county seat, was the natural location. However, legend holds that to avoid the corrupting influence of Watkinsville's Eagle Tavern, Athens was selected to be the home of the new college.

Did You Know...?

Athens, Georgia is the home of the world's only double-barrelled cannon, a landmark of failure. Invented for use in the American Civil War and designed to propel two cannon balls connected by a chain, the device did not pass "beta testing." Due to the inability to fire the cannons in exact synchronization, the chain broke and sent the balls flying erratically in different directions.

Look Both Ways For the Athena Chicken

How to Be Southern

1. Eat grits for breakfast. Cheese grits are better. Salt is fine but only Yankees put sugar on them.

2. Answer in the affirmative even when the answer is negative. Example: "We sure don't have any more of those."

3. After sharing a story about a friend's deplorable habits or lack of common sense or poor decisions or general lack of character, say "Bless his/her heart."

4. To verify the worthiness of a new acquaintance, ask him/her where his/her mother is from, as well as her maiden name. If you recognize either, establish exactly what kind of cousins you might be.

Restaurants Short List

- The Grit: World famous vegetarian fare on the western edge of downtown.
- The National: Best atmosphere, with a seasonal and sophisticated menu
- Farm 255: farm to table with local music and a popular bar
- Ted's Most Best: brick oven pizza, a favorite with all ages and young families mingling at the outdoor café and bocce court
- Trappeze: Beer beer beer, so many beers, and good pub food
- The Last Resort Grill: An Athens southern bistro tradition, featuring shrimp and grits
- The Waffle House: Morning! A unique Georgia-based 24-hour breakfast chain. Order hashbrowns scattered, smothered, covered, chunked, or topped. Play the Waffle House song on the jukebox.
- DePalma's: Popular mid-scale Italian bistro.
- Transmetropolitan: inexpensive pizza, salads, sandwiches and a full-bar upstairs
- Mama's Boy: on the far eastern edge of downtown, popular for breakfast or lunch
- Weaver D's: automatic for the people, soul food for the soul. Just down the hill from the Classic Center. Go for lunch and get your greens on. Check to see if they're open.
